The Property

Gwynfa is a charming 1930s home that combines period character with modern comfort. Bought by the current owners in 2018, it has been thoughtfully improved both inside and out, making it a well-presented, move-in-ready property. With no onward chain, it will appeal equally to families and downsizers looking for a home with genuine curb appeal.

The property enjoys a lovely position opposite the village primary school, set behind double wooden gates with a wide driveway and a recently built carport. The gardens are a real highlight, landscaped by the current owners to include an expansive lawn, established planting, a rockery, and a generous patio for outdoor dining. A large timber shed with log store provides excellent space for tools, bikes, and garden equipment.

Inside, the layout flows beautifully. Two reception rooms at the front each have their own distinct character, one more traditional with a bay window and brick fireplace, the other with a contemporary feel, both featuring wood-burning stoves for a cosy atmosphere. At the heart of the home is the bright and sociable kitchen/diner, offering ample work and storage space and connecting to a useful utility room. Off the utility is the upgraded shower room.

Upstairs there are three double bedrooms and a fourth single room, ideal as a home office, nursery, or hobby space. The master bedroom is particularly spacious, enjoying triple-aspect views over open countryside. Throughout the house there is excellent storage, adding to its practicality. A well-appointed family bathroom completes the accommodation.

Well maintained and tastefully presented, Gwynfa offers a combination of charm, practicality, and location. Situated in a friendly village with excellent local amenities, it is ready for its next chapter.

The Location

Trefeglwys is a small, welcoming village set in the scenic Trannon Valley in Mid Wales. Surrounded by rolling countryside, it's a place that offers a slower pace of life, ideal for those looking to enjoy the outdoors, raise a family, or settle into a more peaceful routine.

The village is home to a well-regarded primary school, a community hall hosting multiple local groups and activities, village playground, places of worship, and The Red Lion; a friendly local pub.

Just outside the village is Meadow Springs Country & Leisure Park, which recently won "Best Caravan, Camping, Glamping" category at the National Tourism Awards organised by the Welsh Government and Visit Wales. Meadow Springs features Arthur's Restaurant & Bar - an extremely popular new hospitality venue.

For anyone interested in pursuing outdoor activities the opportunities are endless. Trefeglwys is under 6 miles from the Llyn Clywedog Dam, a 615 acre reservoir built on the head waters of the river Severn in the late sixties, offering scenic walking and cycling routes as well as trout fishing through the local Angling Club.

The beautiful neighbouring Mid Wales town of Llanidloes has much to offer residents and visitors alike. It is home to the iconic Market Hall which is the oldest timber-framed market hall still in situ in Wales.

The town itself is packed with amenities including a dentists, Medical Centre, cottage hospital, Primary School, Secondary School with Welsh and English language streams, pubs, cafes, take-aways and a wide range of shops ranging from butchers / fishmongers / bakeries / greengrocers to an independent book shop and artisanal boutiques.

Trefeglwys is also close to Caersws with a Train Station and links to Bus Routes.

Trefeglwys combines rural charm with access to high-quality leisure facilities, all within a close-knit and friendly community—making it a great place to call home.
