Summary

Nestled in the charming village of Makeney next to Milford this delightful stone cottage offers a unique blend of character and modern living. With two bedrooms, this property is perfect for those seeking a tranquil retreat in a sought-after location.

Upon entering, you are welcomed into an inviting entrance lobby that leads to a cosy sitting room, featuring an inglenook fireplace, log-burning stove and beams to the ceiling. The open-plan design flows seamlessly into a modern kitchen area.

The cottage has a shower room and a double bedroom that provides far-reaching views over the picturesque Derwent Valley. The second single bedroom can also serve as an office or study for those working from home.

Set within a delightful row of cottages, this property enjoys an elevated position, accessed only by foot from Makeney Road and with no through access. The patio and lawned garden at the front faces west, and enjoys far reaching views over Milford and the Derwent Valley, while an additional garden at the rear provides an additional outdoor space with potential to landscape.

Walking distance of local pubs, restaurants and open countryside of Milford and Makeney. For commuters there is very convenient access to the A6 leading to the A38 and M1. The Peak District is within easy reach and there is a regular bus service to Derby and Belper. Trains to London St Pancras and other major cities are accessed from stations in Belper, Duffield and Derby.

This charming cottage is a rare find, lovingly renovated and improved by the current owner and combining traditional features with modern comforts, making it an ideal home for those looking to embrace the beauty of village life in Makeney.

Accommodation

Ground Floor

Entrance Lobby

3'9" x 3'8" (1.15 x 1.13)

Having a tiled Chinese slate floor, a cottage style door providing access and a wall mounted Worcester boiler (serving domestic hot water and central heating system). The entrance lobby leads to the sitting room and shower room.

Sitting Room

14'1" x 10'5" (4.31 x 3.20)

Having a feature stone inglenook fireplace with stone lintel and surround, exposed brickwork and stone hearth housing a log burning stove. Having beams to the ceiling, a central heating radiator and a cottage style window with character latches provides views over the front garden and countryside beyond.

Kitchen Area

The sitting room is open to a kitchen area which has modern base cupboards and eye level units with solid oak worktops over incorporating a stainless steel sink drainer unit with mixer tap. There is an electric hob, a refrigerator and tiling to the splashback areas. An understairs area provides excellent storage space and stairs lead off to the first floor. Having a Chinese slate tiled floor, exposed beams to the ceiling and a window with tiled sill.

Shower Room

5'11" x 5'2" (1.81 x 1.60)

Approach

The cottage is approached on foot via a pathway leading from Makeney Road to cottages on Forge Hill. The cottages enjoy an elevated position with far reaching westerly views over Milford and the Derwent Valley. The access doesn't extend beyond 5 Forge Hill Place and therefore the cottage enjoys a private frontage.

Outside

To the front of the property a path leads along the terrace of cottages to the end when Number 5 can be found. A gate provides access to a delightful westerly facing garden and patio with extensive lawn and open views of Milford, Makeney and the surrounding area. There is a separate brick built former outside WC. This provides excellent storage space.

Steps from Forge Hill Place lead to the rear of the row of cottages where there is an additional tiered garden with mature woodland to the surround.
