Situated within an exclusive and highly regarded development in the heart of Repton, this beautifully appointed three bedroom detached residence offers an exceptional standard of living in one of South Derbyshire's most prestigious village settings.

The property provides elegant and well-proportioned accommodation throughout, perfectly suited to professional couples, families and those seeking a refined village lifestyle. The home benefits from a spacious and contemporary layout, including a stylish fitted kitchen, generous living accommodation, three well sized bedrooms, an en-suite to the principal bedroom, modern family bathroom, private rear garden and garage.

Repton is widely regarded as one of Derbyshire's most desirable villages, celebrated for its rich heritage, picturesque surroundings and outstanding sense of community. At the centre of the village is the internationally renowned Repton School, whose impressive architecture and historic grounds contribute significantly to the character and prestige of the area.

The village itself offers an excellent range of independent amenities including a traditional butcher, delicatessen, cafés, post office, village stores and several highly regarded pubs and restaurants, all contributing to a charming and highly sought-after lifestyle environment. Scenic countryside walks and nearby canal-side routes further enhance the appeal of the location, offering a perfect balance between village tranquillity and modern convenience.

Despite its peaceful setting, Repton remains exceptionally well connected. Burton upon Trent lies approximately four miles to the south-west, offering extensive shopping, leisure and rail connections, whilst Derby city centre is approximately
