Located in the charming village of Hognaston, is this lovely two-bedroom, two-bathroom detached cottage with the benefit of a driveway providing off-road car parking - Ideal choice for buyers looking to downsize, professional couple, or seeking a holiday home.

The cottage is ideally situated for those who appreciate a quiet village life, with a welcoming community and a popular village pub. It's also conveniently close to Carsington Water, offering beautiful countryside walks, and nearby towns like Ashbourne, Wirksworth, Matlock, Belper and Duffield.

The Location

Yew Tree Cottage occupies a very pleasant rural location in the heart of this most attractive small village which lies barely a mile from Carsington Water (offers sailing club and excellent bridle, cycling and walking paths). It is within easy reach of the Peak District National Park and about 5 miles equidistant between Ashbourne and Wirksworth, providing between them an excellent range of local amenities. It is well placed for commuting to many midland towns and cities with Buxton, Bakewell, Matlock and Derby all within particularly easy reach. The A50 dual carriageway lies about 8 miles to the south of Ashbourne providing swift connections to the motorway networks.

Mainline railway connections are available at Belper, Derby (London 1hour 40 mins) and Buxton. Whilst the international airports of Birmingham, Manchester and East Midlands are all within easy commuting distance.
