Set within beautiful open countryside in the sought-after village of Hazelwood, close to Duffield and Belper, this charming fully furnished apartment offers a peaceful rural setting with far-reaching views across the surrounding farmland.

The accommodation features a comfortable open-plan living, dining and kitchen area, together with a generous double bedroom with dressing area and a spacious bathroom with both bath and separate shower. A useful ground-floor utility and boot room with washer/dryer provides additional storage and practicality.

One of the standout features is the private decked terrace, accessed directly from the bedroom and enjoying picturesque views across the countryside and neighbouring duck pond, with steps leading down to the private garden below.

The property is approached via a gravelled driveway and benefits from car port parking.

Ideally suited for either a single or couple looking for a peaceful countryside home, while remaining conveniently placed for the shops, restaurants, pubs and railway connections available in nearby Duffield and Belper.
