Summary

Located on Nottingham Road in the charming town of Belper, this deceptively spacious Victorian terraced house offers a delightful blend of character and modern living. Spanning an impressive 1,044 square feet, the property is conveniently located within walking distance of the town centre, providing easy access to a variety of amenities.

The accommodation is versatile, spread over three floors, making it ideal for both families and couples and those working from home. Upon entering, you are greeted by a welcoming sitting room, complete with a feature fireplace and a lovely window seat. The lower ground floor boasts a characterful dining room/second sitting room, which provides access to the rear garden and patio. The dining room flows seamlessly into a well-appointed breakfast kitchen, creating an inviting space for entertaining guests or family gatherings.

The property features two generously sized double bedrooms and a modern bathroom with three piece suite.

One of the standout features of this home is the south-facing rear garden, which includes a sun terrace leading down to an extensive lawn and beyond a sheltered area well stocked with trees and shrubs. This outdoor space not only provides a perfect setting for al fresco dining but also offers far-reaching views of the picturesque countryside, making it an ideal retreat after a long day.

A superb addition in the contemporary Garden Room/Home Office, especially appealing to those buyers who work from home.

The house is well positioned for access to the A6, A38, M1 and the local rail network providing links to London St Pancras and other major cities. The highly popular Peak District is a short ride away.

In summary, this Victorian terraced house on Nottingham Road presents a wonderful opportunity for those seeking a blend of traditional charm and contemporary comfort in the heart of Belper. With its spacious layout and delightful garden, it is a property not to be missed.
