Outside

The property occupies a substantial plot on sought after Rowley Lane with an impressive frontage screening the property from the lane providing good sized lawn and extensive driveway leading to garage. Please note further parking could be added to the front of the property by extending the current driveway. To the rear of the property is a large, well-established, mainly lawn garden with well stocked borders. Due to the depth of the garden the plot lends itself to a further extension to the existing accommodation to create a large open plan living space to the rear (subject to necessary planning permission and consents)
