A beautifully spacious four-bedroom home—easily adaptable to five—this unfurnished rental property in Nantwich offers the ideal blend of comfort, flexibility, and location. Set within a peaceful residential area, the house features a generous rear garden perfect for outdoor dining, play, or simply unwinding in the fresh Cheshire air. A private driveway and garage provide excellent parking and storage options, adding to the practicality of the home. Inside, the layout lends itself to modern living, with ample room for families, home-workers, or anyone seeking a property that can evolve with their lifestyle. The potential fifth bedroom offers valuable versatility, whether used as a study, guest room, or hobby space.

Living in Nantwich brings its own set of advantages. The town is known for its charming mix of independent shops, inviting cafés, and historic architecture, creating a warm and welcoming atmosphere. Excellent schools, strong transport links, and easy access to the wider Cheshire countryside make it a highly desirable place to call home. With regular community events, beautiful riverside walks, and a thriving food scene, Nantwich offers a quality of life that's hard to beat.

This property presents a rare opportunity to enjoy generous space, practical features, and the best of Nantwich living in one appealing package.
