It has its own expanse of meadows and woods at its Common – a Country Wildlife Site granted a prestigious Green Flag Award. The Common also hosts the May Fair.

The village is superb for sports, family-friendly activities and access to a wide variety of days out for all ages. There's Whipsnade Zoo, the Natural History Museum, the Ashridge Estate, Dunstable Downs, even a Champneys spa. Holidays couldn't be simpler, with Luton Airport only 10 miles away. For the commuter, trains from Hemel Hempstead will get you into the capital the quickest, and you're well placed for the A41, M1 and M25.

It's rural in Studham, but not too remote. There are two all-important pubs on the doorstep, and amenities and leisure are abundant to pretty market towns in the area, including Berkhamsted, Tring and Dunstable. Both Harpenden and St Albans are equally as easy to reach.

A big appeal for parents is the Ofsted 'Outstanding' primary, with secondary, private and independent schooling nearby. Living in pastoral, peaceful Studham offers a wonderful way to wind down together, and is even better for putting on your walking boots for a whole-family hike through the countryside.
