Porthleven, Cornwall TR13 9AN

It is not very often that a family size property in Porthleven which is walking distance of all the village amenities becomes available with off road parking!! This 3/4 bedroom semi detached house provides a good amount of accommodation and flexible living which is ideally suited for a growing family or dependent relative. Internally, the accommodation is surprisingly spacious. The lounge is dual aspect creating a light and airy space and allows the family to spread out while relaxing in front of the TV. The separate dining room area creates a lovely hosting area which leads into the fully fitted kitchen. This is where you can really put your stamp on the property and make your kitchen dreams come true as the area lends itself to being opened up to create a more practical, modern family room. To the rear the sellers have converted the space into a further bedroom/office allowing a family member to have their own independent space or perfect home office. To the first floor there are two double bedrooms with built in storage with one of those bedrooms enjoying a sea glimpse, a single bedroom and shower room. Outside it is a real blank canvass allowing the avid gardener to fulfill their vision. The lawned area provides a great space for the summer BBQ's and the additional area would make a perfect patio for further outdoor seating or space for a hot tub!!
