Crofty, Back Lane West Redruth, TR15 2BT

Set in Back Lane West, an attractive street leading up from a place of historical interest, Crofty was once part of the old Weights and Measures building in this historic mining and market town and is now a light and spacious home suitable for families and professionals alike.

From the moment you step inside you will be surprised and delighted by the high ceilings, the large windows and the light, airy atmosphere of this home. The open plan living and dining area has an engineered oak floor and its bright, modern decor compliments the original features, creating a very welcoming environment. This seamless space leads into a well-appointed kitchen, making it easy to engage with family and friends while preparing meals, and which has a door to the rear enclosed courtyard offering a peaceful outdoor retreat for enjoying container gardening and a drink in the sunshine. There is also a downstairs bathroom with a toilet and sink.

The first floor offers further surprises with three spacious and characterful double bedrooms each with beautifully unique original features and double glazed Velux windows. There are three steps down to a lovely master bedroom with built in wardrobes, and the light family bathroom contains both a bath and a shower.

Right in the heart of this up-and-coming town with its galleries, cafes, shops and cinema, plus just a few hundred yards from the station and the vibrant new Buttermarket development this “move-in ready” home with its perfect combination of space, style and accessibility is a property not to be missed.
