The Ponderosa

Godolphin Cross, Cornwall TR13 9RE

This three bedroom detached bungalow is an exciting opportunity for renovators and those looking for a project. With an abundance of potential, it is situated in a secluded and picturesque area within Godolphin Cross and is within a short walk of the Primary School and Godolphin Estate. The internal accommodation comprises a fitted kitchen, dining room, dual aspect living room with patio doors for extra light, two double bedrooms with built in wardrobes, a large single bedroom and a family bathroom. The Ponderosa stands in large grounds with lawn areas, including mature trees, shrubs and flower borders. The long driveway is tree-lined, leading to an area of parking for several vehicles in front of the double garage and a workshop to the rear is every car enthusiasts or DIYers dream! To the left of the driveway there is an area of lawn and mature shrubs which subject to any necessary consents being obtained may offer potential for a plot or further development While to the rear there is a further large lawned area with a pond and former mobile home in disrepair. The property comes to the market with No Onward Chain and would create a great family home.
