Location

Situated in an area of outstanding natural beauty, this property provides an exceptional opportunity for someone to purchase a property just moments from the dramatic coastline of Mullion Cove and the South West Coast Path. Mullion Cove is a quaint fishing cove on the West Coast of the Lizard Peninsula in Cornwall with unrivaled access to stunning coastal walks, beautiful beaches and rural countryside. The village of Mullion which is the largest village on the Lizard Peninsula, is approximately one mile away and offers a good range of facilities including primary and secondary schools, a health centre and pharmacy as well as local public houses and shops. The market town of Helston is some eight miles distant and provides a more comprehensive range of shops and amenities and the main line rail link to London Paddington can be picked up from Penzance, Redruth or Truro.
