HUNT

A truly exceptional two-bedroom ground-floor apartment within Wycliffe House, a striking Grade II listed former church dating from 1907, situated directly opposite the beautiful open spaces of Valentines Park.

The impressive home combines period architecture with contemporary living, featuring a spacious open-plan reception room and modern kitchen, soaring ceilings, excellent natural light and spectacular original windows.

Unique character features include Art Nouveau stained glass, distinctive room shapes, an original pillar in the principal bedroom and a skylight overlooking one of the building's exterior gargoyles. These are complemented by a modern kitchen, bathroom, fireplace and flooring.
