£3,900,000 Leasehold

A viewing comes highly recommend for this truly exquisite modern townhouse which is situated within a gated crescent of 12 houses overlooking the idyllic Imperial Park. The extremely generous accommodation 4244sqft (394sqm) is configured over 5 floors and offers fantastic versatile family accommodation. On the entrance floor you will find a study along with a guest WC, and a spacious contemporary kitchen / dining room to the rear, which extends into a light-filled conservatory. The kitchen features a generous sized island for cooking and eating, along with a range of Gaggenau and Miele integrated appliances. The conservatory area provides a wonderful open plan space for relaxing and dining and overlooks a charming well tendered private garden. The self contained annexe offers a variety of uses including work from home space, au pair accommodation offering 390sqft (36sqm) of internal space and is accessed from the garden, providing additional living space, along with a separate shower room. On the first floor are two generously sized reception rooms - perfect for entertaining. The principal bedroom suite occupies the entire second floor. It features a large dressing area, balcony overlooking the park, a spacious bathroom. The top floor offers three further bedrooms (one en suite), and a family bathroom. On the lower ground floor, the house can be entered via a double garage on the lower ground floor. (An additional underground parking space is also available for guests). A large double bedroom is also on this floor, along with a shower room and utility room which would represent an ideal guest bedroom.
