Property Comprises

This charming property was originally built by The Rev. H G Watkins in 1891 and has now been completely renovated by the current owner to a brilliant standard with a luxury specification. Throughout the property the quality of workmanship and attention to detail is unrivalled and has brought this original house back to life with a contemporary finish.

Internally the property boasts a whole host of character features including stunning wood panelling, large fireplace, window seats and more which have all been beautifully restored, really giving the feeling of grandeur and quality. These timeless features are complimented with carefully chosen natural materials, a sympathetic yet modern elegant design.

The house is configured in an upside-down living arrangement to make the most of the breath-taking view from the main, principal rooms. Each room is very well proportioned to give the feeling of great space throughout and the large windows allow the property to be flooded with natural light.

Outside there is a good sized level rear garden and an extensive raised patio which is ideal for al fresco dining. There is also access to the large balcony upstairs via a classical spiral stair case as this is where the harbour views are at their best.

Evening Hill

The property is located in Alington Road, Evening Hill, which is widely regarded as one of the areas most sought after roads within a conservation area that lies within Canford Cliffs and Lilliput. Conveniently located, the local area offers a variety of stylish boutiques, cafes, bars and restaurants and the school catchments of Lilliput First and Baden Powell Schools.

Evening Hill, located on the shores of Poole Harbour, offers probably the very best views over Poole Harbour, Brownsea Island and The Purbeck Hills Beyond. Access to the area is well served by all modes of transport, with a particular emphasis on the fast rail link direct to London Waterloo, as well as sea and air travel to the Channel Islands and mainland Europe from Poole ferry port and Bournemouth International airport respectively.

Bournemouth and Poole town centres are equidistant from the property and both offer superb shopping, recreational and entertainment facilities.
