NO CHAIN. A charming four-bedroom period stone cottage, formed from the sympathetic conversion of two original cottages into one well presented home. Occupying a delightful village setting, the property combines character features, flexible living accommodation and extensive outside space, together with generous parking and additional parcels of amenity land.

ACCOMMODATION

The accommodation is arranged over two floors and retains a wealth of original character throughout.

The ground floor comprises two welcoming reception rooms, one centred around an attractive fireplace and the other featuring a wood-burning stove, creating cosy and inviting living spaces. The kitchen is fitted with wall and base units with butchers block work surface over, and includes a double oven with 4 ring electric hob. Space for an under counter fridge, and the combi boiler is fitted to the wall. The kitchen also boasts traditional flagstone flooring and opens into a separate dining room, where the original quarry tiled floor adds further charm and authenticity. There is an additional door leading to the front, along with a door into the kitchen.

To the first floor, the property benefits from the unique feature of two separate staircases, reflecting its origins as two cottages, while the upstairs accommodation conveniently interlinks to create a practical and cohesive layout. There are four bedrooms and two bathrooms. The principal bathroom is beautifully appointed with a four-piece suite comprising a roll-top bath, separate shower cubicle, wash basin and WC, complemented by attractive wall panelling. The second bathroom is fitted with a bath with shower over, wash basin and WC.

OUTSIDE

A stable door leads from the house into the generous rear garden, which is predominantly laid to lawn and provides an excellent outdoor space for families and entertaining. Within the garden is a substantial insulated cabin with power and lighting, offering an ideal home office, studio or hobby room. Beyond the main garden, a further enclosed area benefits from vehicular access and provides excellent potential for the storage of a caravan, motorhome or additional vehicles. There are rights of way between this property and the neighbouring cottages, with number 17 having right of way over this garden, but they have additional rear access of their own garden so we understand make limited use of this arrangement. This cottage also benefits from right of way over the gardens of 23 and 25.

The property enjoys a garage and parking for approximately six vehicles, located off a shared drive. To the rear of the property, accessed off the shared drive is two parcels of amenity land. One parcel of land is accessed via a five bar gate and is located next to the garage. The second piece of land is adjacent to the first piece and is interconnecting by a gate at the rear, and also has a pedestrian gate at the front. We believe this land makes an ideal space as an additional garden, potential allotment area, and we understand has previously been used to house a swimming pool.
