Rhodaglen, Old Derry Hill

Rhodaglen is a distinctive detached home that has been extensively upgraded and remodelled to create a truly impressive residence. Finished to an exceptional specification throughout, the property enjoys stunning open countryside views to both the front and rear, complemented by a bright, elegant interior with generous proportions and an abundance of natural light.

At the heart of the home is a superb open-plan kitchen, dining and living space, featuring a striking skylight lantern, a gas log effect stove, and direct access to the garden, ideal for modern family living and entertaining. A separate utility room provides additional practicality.

The accommodation comprises four bedrooms, including a standout principal bedroom on the first floor with a luxurious four-piece en-suite. The thoughtfully designed ground floor offers excellent lateral living, with three further double bedrooms, a family bathroom, and a cosy sitting room.

A particular highlight is the excellent annexe accommodation. The former triple garage has been converted to provide a self-contained space with a bedroom, en-suite shower room, kitchenette and living area, benefiting from its own separate access from both the front and the garden—ideal for guests, multi-generational living or potential rental use.

Located in the highly regarded village of Old Derry Hill, known for its sense of community, Rhodaglen is within walking distance of the village shop, local primary school, public house and bus stops, offering both convenience and a desirable village lifestyle.

Location

The home is located in the highly sought-after Old Derry Hill, with a great sense of community adjacent to the village of Derry Hill. The village offers a primary school, a newly opened village shop, a church and a public house. Bowood House and Gardens, along with the hotel, spa and golf course, are also situated nearby. The Pewsham, a 300-year-old stone-built pub, has been tastefully updated and is a popular local favourite for coffee, food and events, located close by.

There is a more comprehensive range of amenities available in nearby Chippenham, including a mainline railway station (London-Paddington) and the M4 motorway at Junctions 16 & 17 offers excellent motor commuting to the major centres of Bath, Bristol, Swindon and London.

The Ground Floor in further detail:

Upon entering the home, you are welcomed by a reception hall with solid wood flooring, featuring pannelling and spotlighting. The hall has stairs rising to the first floor and doors open to the ground floor accommodation. There is a separate sitting room featuring a bay window, a gas fire with a wood mantel, beautiful parquet flooring, and wall lighting.

Also accessed from the hall is the main hub of the home: an impressive open-plan kitchen, dining and family room. This wonderful space is flooded with natural light from a skylight, multiple windows, and two sets of patio doors opening onto the garden, creating a bright and airy room with lovely views and space for dining and relaxing furniture. The kitchen is finished to a high quality and features a central island with a Belfast sink, along with extensive pantry, display, and storage cabinetry. White tiled surrounds and under-counter lighting complete the look. From the kitchen, a door leads to the highly practical utility/boot room. This space benefits from skylights, ample room for appliances, matching cabinetry, and a further Belfast sink. Doors open to both the front and rear gardens, adding excellent day-to-day practicality.

Also on the ground floor are three generous double bedrooms. Bedroom two is dual aspect, enjoying views to both the front and rear of the home, while bedrooms three and four each benefit from built-in wardrobes. These bedrooms are served by a modern ground-floor shower room. The shower room is stylishly appointed, featuring a marble-topped vanity wash basin, water closet, and a large, fully tiled shower cubicle with a curved glass screen.
