Village - Cherhill

Cherhill is a charming village located along the A4 between Calne and Marlborough in Wiltshire, England. It's renowned for its picturesque setting and historical significance, most notably the 17th-century White Horse carved into the Cherhill Downs. Beyond its scenic beauty, Cherhill offers a strong sense of community, with several local amenities that enhance village life. The village boasts a historic church, popular pub, primary school and village hall, all contributing to a close-knit atmosphere. Recently, the addition of the 'Dandy Highwaymen,' a trendy coffee spot, has become a favorite gathering place for locals and visitors alike.

Cherhill's proximity to the famous Avebury stones, just a five-minute drive away, makes it an ideal spot for those interested in exploring the rich history and natural beauty of the region.
