Modern and stunningly presented 'Takeham' home in this small Beaumont Gardens development of 36 homes which was completed in 2015. This quiet position within this small close does not have any passing traffic giving a peaceful and tranquil feel to this home. Located within walking distance to the bus services to Brighton, local schools and with superb views toward Centenary Park it really has everything that you need. The accommodation comprises spacious entrance hallway and from here access is then gained into the large and bright lounge/dining room which has plenty of space for good size soft furnishings and you will easily be able to entertain with a dining table and chairs too. The kitchen has a lovely range of units and plentiful work surfaces along with integrated appliances. An understairs storage cupboard allows you to store plenty away. Lastly on the ground floor is the convenient cloakroom/WC. The generous accommodation continues to the first floor with all rooms running from the first floor hall. 3 generous bedrooms are on offer, the master benefits from its own impressive Ensuite shower room/WC. The Ensuite has a state of the art modern walk in double shower cubicle and this is presented alongside a sleek basin and WC. The two remaining bedrooms are accompanied by a family bathroom/WC which is spacious. Externally there are two allocated parking spaces, a low maintenance front garden and a private rear garden with cottage style planting, and a patio area. Unfurnished. Must be Viewed.
