moredetail...

This superb detached bungalow has spacious extended accommodation and sits on a good size corner plot with secluded west aspect wrap around gardens. Located in a pleasant cul-de-sac in the popular south/east corner the bungalow is offered with vacant possession and benefits from gas central heating with modern boiler and double glazed windows along with fascia's and soffits for a maintenance free exterior. As you approach the property there is ample off street parking to twin garages and an established front garden leads to an enclosed side courtyard.

The entrance hall has a large cloaks cupboard housing the central heating boiler and loft access with ladder. The L-shaped lounge has a full height bay window over looking the rear garden and sliding doors with access. There is an 'Adams' style fireplace which makes a nice focal point. The separate formal dining room also has access to the garden. The adjoining kitchen has a good range of 'Shaker' style cupboards, complemented by granite effect working surface with breakfast bar. There is an inset sink, gas hob and electric double oven. There is an integrated fridge/freezer and appliance space for washing machine and dish washer.

The main bedroom has a range of fitted wardrobes, matching cabinets and outlook over the rear garden. Bedroom two is also a good size double whilst bedroom three would make an ideal study and has views of Seaford Head. Off the entrance hall there is a separate WC and the family bathroom has a WC, wash basin in vanity unit, corner bath, bidet and shower cubicle.

A particular feature are the secluded wrap around gardens which have a favoured westerly aspect. There are raised brick flower borders with established planting and various seating area's, timber shed, summer house and green house.
