moredetail...

This exceptional detached character house is conveniently located in the heart of Seaford town and stands on a good size plot with mature, secluded gardens and garden studio/office. Further benefits include 4 double bedrooms, 3 reception rooms, kitchen/breakfast room with appliances, double glazed windows and gas central heating.

As you approach the property there is a carriage driveway to garage, which has utility space and houses the modern central heating boiler. The canopied front entrance leads to a vestibule with mosaic tiled flooring which extends to the entrance hall with cloakroom/WC.

The lounge has a bay window with a south aspect, solid oak flooring which extends to the principal rooms and feature fire surround with inset cast iron log burner, which makes a nice focal point.

There is a separate formal dining room and the benefit of a third reception room/study.

The well appointed kitchen/breakfast room has direct access to the patio and garden. The breakfast area has ample dining space and integral door to the garage. The kitchen is well fitted with a range of 'Shaker' style cupboards, complemented by granite working surface with inset sink, integrated dish washer, and range cooker with extractor hood. There is a vaulted ceiling with sky lights and herringbone flooring with under floor heating.

On the first floor landing there is loft access, good size family bathroom with free standing bath, shower cubicle, WC, wash basin in vanity unit, under floor heating and dual aspect windows. There is a separate shower room which could be converted to form an en-suite to the main bedroom.

Bedrooms one and two have the benefit of delightful views towards the sea and Seaford Head, and there are two further double bedrooms.

A particular feature of the property is the rear garden. There is a full width patio with pergola and external power, gate to side courtyard with shed. The level lawn has mature planting providing seclusion and the garden studio has power and light
