moredetail...

This exceptionally well presented detached house is located in a popular residential area within a convenient level walk to Seaford town. Having been much improved by the present owner the many benefits include a modern fitted kitchen, double glazed windows, gas central heating with modern 'combi' boiler and contemporary style bathroom fittings.

As you approach the property there is an enclosed front garden and gated side access. The entrance porch is finished in solid oak with tiled canopy and leads into the main entrance hall. There is a cloakroom/WC and turn stairs to the first floor landing.

The dual aspect lounge has a pleasant outlook over the gardens and a door giving access. There is a fire surround and electric fire which makes a nice focal point.

The well appointed kitchen/dining room has a pleasant outlook over the rear garden and the kitchen is fitted with a good range of high gloss cupboards, complemented by ample working surface with tiled splash back. There is an inset 'induction' hob, double oven, extractor canopy and appliance space for fridge/freezer and door to connecting conservatory which has double doors out to the rear garden.

On the first floor landing there is a full height stained glass picture window, loft access and linen cupboard housing the central heating boiler.

There is a separate WC and re-fitted shower room with glass cubicle, wash basin in vanity unit, chrome heated towel rail and tiled walls.

The dual aspect main bedroom is located to the front of the property, bedroom two which is also a generous double room having a 'Juliette' balcony with views towards Seaford Head. Bedroom three is currently used as an office and also enjoys views towards Seaford Head.

A particular feature of the property are the attractive wrap around gardens. The secluded rear garden has a south aspect, patio area with pergola and access to the tandem garage which has rear work shop area, power/light and off street parking from Meads Road.
