Ideally located, the property is within easy walking distance of local schools, shops, regular bus routes to Brighton, and Chatsworth Park, making it perfectly suited for family living.

Upon entering, you are welcomed by a bright entrance hall, complete with useful understairs storage. The south-facing lounge is a standout feature, flooded with natural light to create a warm and inviting space, with ample room for all your furnishings.

Adjacent to the lounge is the impressive kitchen/dining room. The dining area comfortably accommodates family mealtimes, while the modern kitchen offers an excellent range of work surfaces, cupboards, and drawers, along with integrated appliances. Upstairs, the property comprises three bedrooms—two generous doubles and a well-proportioned single—alongside a stylish, refitted white bathroom suite featuring a bath, sleek WC, and basin.

Externally, the rear garden has been designed for ease of maintenance, offering a spacious private decked area alongside an artificial lawn—ideal for relaxing or entertaining without the need for intensive upkeep. To the front, there is a neat, well-maintained garden, a convenient bin storage cupboard, and off-road parking.
