84 Regent Street, Kingswood, Bristol, BS15 8HU

The property comprises a substantial two storey building situated in a prominent location adjoining the Kingswood Clock Tower which was built in 1897 for Queen Victoria's Diamond Jubilee. The property has been in long term use as a fish and chip shop and restaurant presently trading as Clock Tower Fish Bar and is available at the end of the lease with vacant possession.

The property briefly comprises a ground floor restaurant, servery, kitchen and preparation room with first floor former restaurant space now used as storage and an office. To the rear is a courtyard with covered seating area and an outbuilding with wc and store room and a further yard area beyond the courtyard. In our opinion the property has huge potential for redevelopment (subject to obtaining necessary planning consents). There are a number of alternative uses, perhaps retaining a smaller lock up retail unit, and extension to provide residential accommodation in multiple units.

Regent Street is a popular shopping street in the heart of Kingswood, a suburb of East Bristol which has a range of local and national retailers and is some 3 miles from Bristol City Centre with good public transport links.
