36 Long Fox Manor 825 Bath Road, Brislington, Bristol, BS4 5RT

Occupying part of the ground floor of an imposing period conversion, this delightful one double bedroom apartment has been subject to several recent improvements including the installation of a Worcester gas combination boiler and updated decoration and flooring, neatly blends original character with modern enhancements. Its ground floor position makes it an excellent alternative to a bungalow, as well as an ideal lock-up and leave home.

Long Fox Manor dates back to approximately 1806 and was converted into luxury apartments 25 years ago. The development is set within around 9 acres of beautifully maintained grounds, offering a unique sense of countryside living while enjoying excellent transport links to both Bristol and Bath, as well as the nearby town of Keynsham.

Accessed via electrically operated double gates, the property is approached along a sweeping driveway leading to an allocated parking space, along with ample visitor parking. The apartment itself is accessed via a communal entrance serving just four properties. Internally, the apartment is entered into a spacious entrance hallway with room for a desk if required. This leads to a stunning lounge/dining room measuring 7m x 4.8m (22'11" x 15'8"), featuring a large picture window with inset shutters overlooking the communal gardens. A fitted kitchen/breakfast room enjoys further garden views, a range of integrated appliances and a recently installed boiler. To the front of the apartment is a well-proportioned double bedroom with high ceilings and attractive views across the landscaped grounds, including mature trees and the residents' tennis court. The accommodation is completed by a matching three-piece bathroom with shower over bath.

Residents of Long Fox Manor benefit from an exceptional range of facilities including a chapel, ball room, gym, spa and sauna, outdoor swimming pool (open April to October), tennis court and extensive grounds with seating areas and barbecue space.
