Woodlea House Stockwood Vale, Keynsham, Bristol, BS31 2AS

Set within approximately two acres of private grounds and enjoying far reaching countryside views, Woodlea House is a substantial four/five bedroom residence dating back to 1913. Located at the end of a peaceful lane on the rural edge of Keynsham, the property offers exceptional privacy while remaining close to town centre amenities, schools, and transport links.

The home has been thoughtfully modernised throughout, blending period character with stylish and practical living. The ground floor features a welcoming hallway, spacious lounge, and an impressive open-plan kitchen/dining/family room—perfect for modern family life and entertaining. A ground floor double bedroom with adjoining shower room is ideal for guests, alongside a utility room and access to the integral garage. Upstairs offers three double bedrooms, all with countryside views, and the principal bedroom opening onto a roof terrace via a snug, which offers potential as a walk-in wardrobe or en-suite. A luxury four-piece bathroom completes this floor. Additional features include a basement and a vast integral garage (approx. 9.3m x 7.6m) with inspection pit, wash area, storage, and stairs leading to a recently converted office/studio—ideal for remote work or hobbies.

The mature, well-stocked gardens are a standout feature, accessed via electric gates and providing generous space for outdoor living. A detached workshop (approx. 15.5m x 5.7m) at the rear of the plot benefits from three phase power and an inspection pit, making it a perfect space to run a business or for further development (subject to obtaining necessary consents).

Stockwood Vale is a no-through road surrounded by open countryside yet remains within easy reach of Keynsham's high street, railway station, and highly regarded schools—making this an exceptional opportunity for those seeking rural living with town convenience.
