A fine example of a 1960s four bedroom home, this property is set on a popular road on the Wellsway side of town and has recently undergone an impressive programme of modernisation that compliments the bright and spacious accommodation.

The home is entered via a porch leading to a welcoming entrance hallway, from which the WC and a generous lounge with feature picture window are accessed. The lounge flows into the dining room, which in turn opens to a delightful conservatory and a fully fitted kitchen. The ground floor further offers a useful utility room and an internal lobby with integral access to the single garage. To the first floor, there are four well-proportioned bedrooms, three enjoying far-reaching views over neighbouring farmland and the fourth overlooking the rear garden. The second bedroom benefits from a luxurious en suite shower room, ideal for visiting relatives, while the remaining bedrooms are served by an equally high-quality family bathroom; both bathrooms enjoy underfloor heating.

Externally, the gardens have been landscaped for ease of maintenance. The front offers a large block-paved driveway with dropped kerb access and an EV charging point, while the rear features two patio areas perfect for entertaining, a generous lawn, well-stocked flower beds, two useful sheds and a feature pond set beneath a pergola.

Further benefits include owned outright solar panels, making this an efficient and cost-effective home for families looking to upsize within the Wellsway school catchment area.
