Eastwood, 73 Wellsway, Keynsham, Bristol, BS31 1HX

Eastwood is an attractive individual detached house and originally dates from the 1950's and has been in the current family ownership for nearly 40 years during which time it has been successfully extended and sympathetically modernised to create a fine family home which is very well presented throughout.

On the ground floor the accommodation is approached via an open veranda with an entrance porch and hallway which has a polished wood floor, there are three reception rooms as well as a large live in family kitchen, separate utility room and downstairs cloakroom with wc. The first floor has four double bedrooms with a bay fronted main bedroom with en suite bathroom and the other bedrooms served by well appointed family bathrooms. The forward facing rooms enjoy fine views across open countryside along the valley of the River Chew.

Wellsway has long been one of Keynshams most sought after residential locations, being a wide road of mainly individual detached properties. Eastwood is within easy walking distance of the Wellsway Academy Complex and being on the lower part of The Wellsway has the advantage of easy pedestrian access to the Town Centre via Dapps Hill with excellent links to local transport infrastructure both by road and rail.
