Swallow Court Newpit Lane, Bitton, Bristol, BS30 6NT

Swallow Court is a Grade II Listed attached barn conversion, converted in 2002 with flair and imagination to create a versatile home with accommodation extending to just under 2000sqft with much character including vaulted ceilings, exposed timber beams, solid oak floors, bespoke oak joinery and windows and doors successfully fused with contemporary fittings with a well appointed kitchen/breakfast room and bathrooms.

On the ground floor, the property is approached through an impressive central hallway. The sitting room has twin French doors opening onto a southerly facing terrace and a feature inglenook fireplace with multi fuel stove. On the opposite side of the hallway is a well proportioned dining room with direct access to the terrace, leading to the kitchen/breakfast room with the utility beyond. There is a large double bedroom with en suite shower room, while a cloakroom with WC completes the ground floor. On the first floor, characterised by vaulted ceilings and exposed timber work, is a spacious landing and two double bedrooms, one with en suite shower room, the other served by a luxury family bathroom with a four piece suite.

The barn is an attractive building, constructed in natural stone with a pantile roof and stands in a beautiful garden with the plot extending in total approximately 0.17 acres, lying predominantly on the southern side of the barn taking full advantage of the delightful aspect and views across the Golden Valley. The garden is walled and level and comprises an extensive flagstone terrace immediately adjacent to the sitting room and dining room with a broad central flagstone pathway leading from a gravelled parking area which provides ample parking for a number of vehicles. The gardens themselves are landscaped with lawns, raised borders and a variety of shrubs and bushes and ornamental trees including Magnolia, Acer and Holly. There is a garden pond, log store and vegetable beds.

Swallow Court lies on Newpit Lane, a highly sought after rural location just under a mile from the centre of Bitton village with a similar distance to Upton Cheyney and Oldland Common. There are village stores, a primary school, public house and church in Bitton, while Oldland has a wider range of amenities including a Doctors' surgery and pharmacy. Upton Cheyney is home to the popular Upton Inn. Keynsham, about 4 miles away, has a good range of local amenities including a Waitrose Food Store and railway station. The Georgian City of Bath is a short 8 mile journey with similar distance to Bristol and Junction 18 of the M4. This is a highly accessible location yet set within beautiful countryside with a network of footpaths and walks available from the doorstep.
