11 Rectory Lane, Timsbury, Bath, BA2 0LB

This attractive stone built terraced village house is a unique property of charm and character with a 'T' shape configuration with the majority of the rooms on the southern side of the building giving a wonderful aspect overlooking the garden and enjoying views across the Cam Valley. The three storey house would be easily misjudged by the modest street view on Rectory Lane from which the property takes its address, but to which only a small part of the house fronts. The property, which is believed to date back to 1780 and with several original features, has beautiful double fronted façade and offers generous room sizes throughout.

There are two well balanced reception rooms, one of which has a superb inglenook fireplace with wood burning stove in addition to a modern John Lewis kitchen on the ground floor. The first floor has two double bedrooms, a dressing room and bathroom while the upper floor has a large 35ft long studio style room with exposed timber beams which serves as a living / office area and bedroom.

Rectory Lane is a quiet location in the village of Timsbury which is a well served location with an excellent community atmosphere. The village offers a wide range of amenities including convenience store, café, pharmacy, pet shop, primary school rated as outstanding, church, doctors surgery, hairdressers, community hall with a number of excellent sports clubs and a popular pub The Seven Stars. There is a regular bus service through the village for those wishing to access the cities of Bristol and Bath. The village lies approximately 7 miles south west of the Georgian City of Bath with its range of cultural and educational facilities. The City of Bristol, a regional centre, is just over 12 miles away while the towns of Midsomer Norton (4 miles) and Keynsham (7miles) offer a good range of day to day of amenities, and main line railway station. The village is surrounded by open countryside with many excellent walks available form the doorstep.
