SITTING ROOM 5.92 x 3.74 (19'5" x 12'3")

This really is a charming place to relax and unwind with an impressive inglenook fireplace which has a wood burning stove giving heating to the room and a warm cosy feel. There is further heating available with a modern radiator. The room oozes period charm with part exposed stone walls, tiled floors, ceiling beams and a stone inset shelf. There are two double glazed front aspect windows providing natural light and a useful storage cupboard under the stairs leading to the first floor.

KITCHEN DINER 6.25 x 2.72 narrowing to 2.01 (20'6" x 8'11" narrowing to 6'7")

This has a great feel of a country style cottage kitchen but with a modern day practical design. There is a range of cream base units comprising cupboards and drawers with block wood worktops and rear wood upstands and subway style tiles above in place. Further storage is supplied via wall units, one with a glass front. Space is provided for a range style cooker, fridge freezer, dishwasher and washing machine. A lovely Belfast sink continues the traditional feel to the kitchen. The cottage feel continues with part exposed stone walls, black tiled floors and a stable style door which leads out to the side of the property and the garden. Double glazed windows with a rear aspect offer views to the garden, a further side aspect double glazed window overlooks the courtyard. A step down from the kitchen takes you to the dining area where two skylights let natural light flood in. There is a radiator and half height tongue and groove panelling behind.
