TENURE

The property is leasehold for a term of 125 years from 25th December 1989. The residue of that leasehold interest is available. All of the apartments are sold with an 80% equity with a 20% share being retained by Curo (formally the Somer Community Housing Trust).

The development is restricted to those persons aged over 55 years. It offers independence with the extra security offered by the support of a part time leasehold officer on site in case of emergency and in their absence an emergency call system which is directed to a 24 hour emergency control facility.

The apartments are sold with no chain. Residents have the security of knowing that the freeholder will undertake the management development and be responsible for the maintenance of the grounds, common parts, buildings insurance, exterior repairs and redecoration. The annual service charge for a one bedroom property for the year 2025-2026 is £2835. All tenure and service charge details should be confirmed with your legal advisor prior to exchange of contracts. This particular apartment is situated in the first floor of the development and has an aspect looking out from the side of the building.

AGENTS NOTE

This particular apartment is situated in the first floor of the development and has an aspect looking out from the side of the building.

COUNCIL TAX

According to the Valuation Office Agency website, cti.voa.gov.uk the present Council Tax Band for the property is C. Please note that change of ownership is a 'relevant transaction' that can lead to the review of the existing council tax banding assessment.
