65 High Street, Saltford, Bristol, BS31 3EW

This delightful stone and tile detached period cottage dates from the early 18th century and has a wonderful discreet location set in a Conservation Area in the old village High Street of Saltford. The property is Grade II listed, features a most attractive double fronted facade and offers accommodation across two levels. It is well presented throughout fusing character with modern fittings, notably the kitchen which has a full range of integrated appliances.

On the ground floor there is a generously proportioned 22ft open plan living and dining room with a wood burning stove together with a kitchen/breakfast room. The first floor has two bedrooms and a bathroom.

The property is set back from High Street by a very pleasant southerly facing walled garden which is attractively and traditionally landscaped with a wide terrace immediately adjacent to the property ideal for outdoor entertaining with a good size lawn beyond with a variety of shrubs, bushes and trees. There is a detached stone and tile outbuilding which is used as a store but has previously served as an office/studio.

The house enjoys an idyllic situation within easy reach of riverside walks, Bristol -Bath cycle way and local pubs yet also accessible to the Bath Road with its shops and amenities and excellent transport links to Bristol and Bath.

Saltford is an excellent strategic location between the cities of Bristol and Bath offering a range of village amenities and excellent local schools both the village primary school and Wellsway at Keynsham. The cities of Bristol and Bath are within easy reach by road and public transport.
