Polmear, 42 , Marksbury, Bath, BA2 9HP

Polmear is a most attractive individually designed detached house built in the late 1980's to an exacting standard. It has attractive stone faced elevations beneath a tiled roof with dormer windows. It is cleverly designed to maximise the advantages of the good size plot that enjoys a southerly facing aspect at the rear. The accommodation is arranged over three floors and although this is a modern property it has character features including mullion windows, a minster fireplace with wood burning stove in the sitting room, an Aga kitchen which is open to the dining room and a most attractive double glazed conservatory.

The accommodation is versatile arranged across three floors with a bedroom/study, shower room and hallway on the ground floor above which lies the main reception accommodation of sitting room, conservatory, dining room and kitchen which is also accessed at garden level to the rear while on the upper floor are three bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Externally the property has a richly stocked, good size rear garden that compliments the house perfectly and has the advantage of a useful garden store. At the front of the house, the driveway is brick paved leading to a double garage.

Marksbury is a sought after village location. Polmear has a desirable position in the heart of the village away from main road traffic and close to the popular village primary school, parish church and community hall. The village is in the catchment area of Wellsway School at Keynsham and has a convenience store and petrol station for day to day shopping while a wider range of amenities are available at the nearby town of Keynsham which has a Waitrose food store. The village is on the edge of the Chew Valley with its renowned recreational facilities and the cities of Bristol and Bath are within easy commuting distance.

In all a rare opportunity presents itself to acquire a property of character and quality but without the higher maintenance costs associated with an older property.
