The Old Granary, Avon Valley Farm Pixash Lane, Keynsham, Bristol, BS31 1TS

This attractive stone and tile barn is understood to have been converted to residential use in the 1990's, with a characterful two storey conversion and a sympathetic single storey rear extension to provide spacious accommodation with a good degree of inherent versatility. An attractive building, internally it has character features including ledged and braced internal doors, exposed beams, arrow slit windows and a turning staircase with galleried landing.

The accommodation offers good room sizes throughout. On the ground floor there is a spacious entrance hall, at the rear of the building opening onto the garden is a sizable living room which links to a dining room. The kitchen/breakfast room is well appointed with a range of modern units and a separate utility room. There is also an internal room used as a study as well as a bedroom. The upper floor has two good size double bedrooms. The main bedroom has a full range of built in wardrobes and a modern en suite bathroom. The other rooms are served by a well appointed family bathroom.

On the outside, the property is approached through double electric gates and is set in a pleasant secluded manageable plot with a gravelled driveway to the front as well as a lawned garden with a decked terrace and outdoor bar, while the rear garden is enclosed and laid mainly to lawn.

The Old Granary is situated at Avon Valley Farm on the eastern edge of Keynsham within the Wellsway School catchment area. This is a unique semi rural setting, the farm having been developed and diversified over many years. The Old Granary is found at the very end of Pixash Lane. This is a convenient location with good access to the A4 Bath Road, a mile from Waitrose and approximately 2 miles from the centre of Town with good access to Bristol and Bath.
