110 West Street, Oldland Common, Bristol, BS30 9QR

A charming and characterful home located in the heart of Oldland Common, offering four double bedrooms, generous living accommodation and the added benefit of a commercial unit to the side with a variety of potential uses.

The ground floor provides impressive and versatile living space. Upon entering, you are welcomed into a characterful sitting room featuring exposed ceiling beams and a feature fireplace, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere. Double doors lead through to a further reception room with a bay window, currently used as a home office.

To the rear of the property is a spacious dining/reception room, ideal for both family living and entertaining. This flows seamlessly into a charming kitchen, where a box bay window allows natural light to flood the space. A useful pantry provides excellent additional storage. Beyond the kitchen is a conservatory overlooking the attractive rear garden. Completing the ground floor there is a generous utility room and a cloakroom.

The first floor offers four well-proportioned double bedrooms, each full of character, along with a modern family bathroom featuring both a bath and a separate shower.

The rear garden is divided into two distinct areas. One features a lawn surrounded by a variety of mature plants and shrubs, while the other is predominantly laid to patio, creating the perfect setting for alfresco dining and outdoor entertaining. A gate provides access to the parking area.

To the side of the property is a commercial unit that currently offers potential for an income stream. Alternatively, subject to any necessary consents, it could be converted into an impressive home office, studio or additional accommodation.

This delightful home offers a wealth of character, flexible living space and exciting potential, and is available with no onward chain.

Oldland Common is a well established and popular village situated on the eastern fringe of Bristol, offering a blend of village character, everyday amenities and excellent access to both Bristol and Bath. Located within South Gloucestershire, the area is particularly appealing to families and those looking for a quieter setting while remaining within easy reach of the city.

The village has a strong community feel, with a range of local amenities including convenience stores, a pharmacy, takeaways, pubs and community facilities. The village also benefits from local schools, including St Anne's Church of England Primary School, Redfield Edge Primary School and Sir Bernard Lovell Academy, making the area a convenient choice for families.

For leisure and outdoor pursuits, there are plenty of opportunities to enjoy the surrounding countryside and green spaces. The nearby Bristol and Bath Railway Path provides a popular traffic-free route for walking and cycling, connecting the area with both cities. The historic Avon Valley Railway also runs through the village, providing a charming local attraction and a reminder of the area's railway heritage.

The location also provides convenient access to the wider road network. The A431 links towards Bath and Bristol, while nearby connections provide access towards the Bristol Ring Road and surrounding area.

SITTING ROOM 5.89 3.97 (19'3" 13'0")

Accessed via a charming wood stable style door, this delightful room features two double glazed windows with a front aspect, filling the space with natural light. Character features include exposed ceiling beams and an attractive stone fireplace with a wooden mantel and inset wood-burning stove, creating a warm and inviting focal point.

A charming staircase leads to the main bedroom, while two radiators and wall lighting provide comfort and practicality.

OFFICE / RECEPTION ROOM 3.85 x 3.20 (12'7" x 10'5")

A double glazed bay window allows natural light to flood the room and features a charming window seat. The room benefits from wood effect flooring, character inset shelving, traditional exposed stone walling and exposed ceiling beams. Wall lighting and a radiator complete the space.

DINING SPACE / RECEPTION ROOM 6.0 max x 4.05 (19'8" max x 13'3")

An impressive and versatile space featuring predominantly wood effect flooring with areas of attractive tiled flooring. Wall lighting and radiators provide comfort and practicality, while a staircase rises to the first floor.
