18 Twerton Farm Close, Twerton, Bath, BA2 1BL

Located just off the main high street, this well positioned apartment is within easy reach of a range of local amenities including shops, a pub and a barbers.

Set towards the rear of the development, the property enjoys a tucked away position. A few steps lead down to the entrance, providing direct access to the apartment.

Inside, a spacious hallway provides access to the accommodation with a bathroom located to the left. The hallway leads through to an open plan living area with the kitchen positioned at the far end. Two generously sized double bedrooms are accessed directly from the hall.

The property further benefits from an allocated parking space.

The property is located in the Twerton area of Bath, a residential neighbourhood to the west of Bath city centre. The area provides a mix of established housing, local shops, schools and community facilities, with convenient access to everyday amenities.

The property is approximately 2 miles west of Bath city centre, where a wide range of shopping, restaurants, cafés, cultural attractions and leisure facilities can be found. Oldfield Park and Bath Spa railway stations provide rail connections to Bristol, London and other destinations, while local bus services operate between Twerton and the city centre.

The surrounding area benefits from access to green spaces and recreational facilities, including the nearby River Avon and Bath Linear Park. The location also provides relatively straightforward road access towards Bristol and the M4, making it suitable for commuters.
