The Parade

Parkgate, Neston

£575,000

White Horses is an impressive double fronted period townhouse located on The Parade in Parkgate, Cheshire. The property enjoys panoramic views over the Dee Estuary towards the Welsh Hills and has the benefit of off road parking.

The original boarding house was demolished in 1895 on health grounds, this made way for the construction of White Horses at the turn of the century, and it became a merchant house. Many of the original period features have been retained. The accommodation requires some modernisation but offer huge potential and is incredibly spacious.

The accommodation is arranged over two floors and there is the addition of a converted attic space. The accommodation comprises, entrance hallway, drawing room with feature bay window, dining room, cloakroom and kitchen-dining room. On the first floor there are five double bedrooms, one of which is used as a study and there are two bathrooms including an en-suite.

There is loft access on the first-floor landing with an electric ladder. The loft has two additional room and built in storage areas.

Externally, there is an enclosed courtyard style garden with gated access leading onto Mostyn Square. The property has a dedicated parking area which provides parking for two-three vehicles.

This stunning property is offered for sale with no onward chain.
