Property Description

Set directly on the historic Parkgate promenade, Grey Walls is a characterful Georgian home dating from circa 1740, enjoying uninterrupted views across the Dee Estuary to the Welsh hills beyond.

Arranged over four floors, the house retains many of its original architectural details — sash windows, tall ceilings and period fireplaces — offering a wonderful sense of history and proportion throughout. Its elevated position on The Parade means the ever-changing estuary landscape forms a constant backdrop, with spectacular sunsets and wide coastal skies visible from the upper floors.

Parkgate itself has become one of the Wirral's most sought-after coastal villages. Known for its estuary walks, independent cafés, restaurants, shops and renowned salon, the promenade has a relaxed, almost seaside atmosphere while remaining within easy reach of Chester, Liverpool and excellent local schools.

The accommodation unfolds across four levels and offers flexible living space with exciting potential to evolve. The ground floor comprises a welcoming entrance hall leading to a formal dining room, kitchen and a generously proportioned living room overlooking the promenade and Dee Estuary. A basement level provides additional storage space.

Across the upper floors are three well-proportioned double bedrooms, with the higher levels enjoying particularly striking views across the estuary. A shower room serves the first floor, while the second floor also hosts a spacious bathroom alongside the third bedroom.

To the rear is a private courtyard garden with access to an outbuilding currently used as a utility space. The front garden is enclosed and thoughtfully planted, creating a charming setting for the traditional Georgian façade and a perfect space for alfresco dining and entertaining.

Rich in history and perfectly positioned on one of Wirral's most iconic waterfront addresses, Grey Walls offers a rare opportunity to acquire a home in one of the areas most prestigious locations.

Location

The property is located in the highly sought after village of Parkgate, Cheshire's only coastal village, and is a short distance from the market town of Neston.
