Blackkeys Lane , Neston

£490,000

The image shows the front entrance of a house with a light-colored pebbledash finish. A white door with a decorative glass panel and a wreath is the central feature. To the left is a large multi-paned window. A black downspout runs vertically on the left side. A black lantern-style light fixture is mounted on the wall. A black sign with white text is positioned above a large, ornate, dark-colored flower pot filled with red flowers. To the right of the door is another window and a black downspout. A small blue pot with pink flowers sits on the ground near the door. The roof is dark grey, and a black gutter runs along the edge. The overall scene is well-maintained and inviting.

Occupying a generous plot on the ever-popular Blackeys Lane, this beautifully presented and extended four-bedroom detached residence blends the charm and character of its early 1900s origins with the space and practicality required for modern family living. Retaining a wealth of period features throughout, the property enjoys an enviable position just a short stroll from Neston town centre, excellent local amenities, highly regarded schools and convenient transport links.

The accommodation is both spacious and versatile, beginning with a welcoming entrance hall that leads to a generous lounge, a well-appointed farmhouse-style kitchen with Belfast sink and range cooker, and an impressive open-plan family room. Featuring a wood-burning stove, roof lantern windows and bi-folding doors opening onto the garden, this outstanding living space is perfectly designed for everyday family life and entertaining alike. A ground floor WC completes the accommodation.

To the first floor are four well-proportioned bedrooms, including a principal bedroom with fitted storage and a further bedroom benefiting from a walk-in wardrobe. A particularly spacious family bathroom serves the first floor.

Externally, the property continues to impress with a substantial block-paved driveway providing ample off-road parking, an attached garage and attractive front gardens. To the rear is a generous, private garden, predominantly laid to lawn with mature borders, a large patio ideal for outdoor dining and entertaining, and a summerhouse.

Properties of this style, character and location rarely become available, and an early viewing is highly recommended.
