Immaculate Detached Chalet Bungalow – Fully Renovated to an Exceptional Standard

This stunning four-bedroom detached chalet bungalow has been beautifully renovated to an exceptionally high standard, offering a perfect blend of contemporary elegance and practical living.

Situated in a sought-after village cul-de-sac location, this immaculate home must be viewed to be fully appreciated.

Summary

Upon entering the property you are welcomed by a light and airy entrance hall, setting the tone for the spacious interiors. The lounge boasts a vaulted ceiling and large windows, flooding the room with natural light and creating a wonderful sense of space. The extended kitchen/dining room is a true showstopper, featuring a high-quality fitted kitchen with premium appliances—perfect for entertaining and family life, with direct access to the delightful rear gardens.

The property benefits from a high quality modern downstairs family bathroom, while the master bedroom enjoys the luxury of another high quality en-suite shower room. The additional bedrooms are generously sized, with the upper level offering attractive views over surrounding countryside and the Severn crossing, adding to the charm of this exceptional home.

Outside, the quality landscaped gardens to both the front and rear provide ample outdoor space, ideal for relaxing or entertaining. A brick paved driveway with turning circle lead to a huge almost 20ft sq detached double garage which offers fantastic storage or workshop potential, perfect for car enthusiasts or those requiring an office or large workshop or art gallery space if desired.

Tenure -

The property has a pepper corn rent which dates back to the origins of the original build. Please ask the agent and your solicitor before completing a purchase.
