Vendor Comment

We bought this property five years ago and have absolutely loved calling it home. Moving out of the city centre gave us so much more—extra space, an off road parking space, and a generously sized garden where we've spent countless happy evenings.

One of the things we've most enjoyed is the location. It's just a short walk to both Henleaze and Westbury-on-Trym, where we often head for brunch—FED is our favourite spot—or for drinks at the Eastfield Inn on a Friday night. Both areas offer a great range of shops, cafes, and other amenities.

Despite being on a main road, the house itself is surprisingly peaceful inside. It's ideally situated for the amenities of North Bristol and just a short bus ride to Whiteladies Road or the city centre. This has truly been the perfect first home for us, and we hope the next owners love it just as much as we have.
