Waverley Court is the closest retirement complex to Portishead Marina and Nature Reserve, offering a highly desirable lifestyle with a host of outstanding communal facilities. These include a stylish residents' lounge, hobbies and activity room, on-site hair and beauty salon, restaurant, and beautifully maintained south-facing communal gardens. The development is maintained to an exceptional standard throughout.

Designed with safety and peace of mind in mind, the complex benefits from an in-house manager who oversees the upkeep of the building and grounds, as well as assisting residents with any additional support needs. Anchor Hanover’s 24-hour emergency call care system also ensures immediate access to help whenever required. The apartment itself has been fitted with a winch system to aid getting from the bedroom to the shower room.

This well-proportioned apartment is thoughtfully designed with accessibility in mind, featuring a wide and spacious entrance hall suitable for wheelchair users. The generously sized double bedroom offers direct access to a modern Jack and Jill walk-in shower room for added convenience. The bright and airy living room comfortably accommodates both lounge and dining areas, creating a flexible and inviting space to relax or entertain. A separate, fully fitted kitchen completes the layout, offering ample storage and workspace.
