Heron Mill | Walsall | WS3 4QT

Offers In The Region Of £500,000

Summary

"Don't judge a book by its cover" - From the outside, this home may appear modest but step inside and you will discover a surprisingly spacious and thoughtfully extended detached family residence. Tucked away in a peaceful Cul-de-sac setting a generous driveway providing parking for several vehicles and a double garage, making an impressive first impression. A side entrance leads into a useful lobby hallway with access to the garage and a versatile study, perfect for those working from home or in need of a quiet retreat. From the moment you enter the main hallway, the sense of space is immediately apparent. The accommodation has been designed with family living in mind, featuring a guest WC, a cosy front reception room currently used as a relaxing snug with feature entertainment wall and a spacious rear living room that forms the heart of the home. Double doors open into a bright conservatory with a glass roof, creating a wonderful space to enjoy the changing seasons while taking in views of the garden. The extended kitchen is ideal for modern family life, fitted with granite work surfaces and offering plenty of storage and preparation space. Whether it's busy weekday breakfasts or entertaining friends and family, this room is perfectly equipped to handle it all, while a separate utility room helps keep everyday life organised and out of sight.

Upstairs, the property continues to impress with four well proportioned bedrooms, including a generous principal bedroom with its own en-suite. One of the bedrooms leads through to an additional
