Don't be deceived by first impressions, this home offers far more space than its exterior suggests. Step inside to discover surprisingly generous accommodation, with the standout feature being the impressive ground floor extended living space, perfectly suited to modern family living.

The property opens into a versatile front reception room whilst to the rear, a spacious living room features a multi fuel burner and bi-fold doors that seamlessly connect to a stunning extended kitchen. The kitchen is a true highlight, beautifully appointed with gloss handleless units, a central island and skylights that flood the space with natural light. Further bi-fold doors open onto the rear garden, effortlessly bringing the outside in, perfect for entertaining. A separate utility room adds practicality to this well designed space. Upstairs, the first floor offers two bedrooms and a stylishly refitted shower room.
