Guide Price £385,000

Well-positioned four-bedroom detached house in a quiet close, enjoying fabulous rear views across open countryside and the magnificent Lackford Lakes.

Built of traditional brick construction with a rendered front façade beneath a tiled roof, this well-presented detached house enjoys a lovely quiet setting, within a stone's throw of countryside walks and conveniently positioned for Bury St Edmunds, Newmarket, and access to Cambridge.

Benefitting from oil-fired radiator central heating, double glazing, and no onward chain, the accommodation currently comprises, in brief, an entrance hall with stairs rising to the first floor and a door to the cloakroom.

The dual-aspect sitting room is a comfortable reception space with a fireplace and an opening through to the separate dining room, which has a door and large window overlooking the rear gardens. The kitchen is fitted with a range of units providing plenty of drawer and cupboard space beneath preparation surfaces, with space for appliances, an oil-fired boiler, a window to the front, and a door to the side.

On the first floor, the landing leads to four comfortable bedrooms, served by the family bathroom. All bedrooms have fitted wardrobes and, of particular note, the two rear bedrooms afford wonderful far-reaching views across open countryside towards Lackford Lakes.

Outside

To the front of the house are areas of well-stocked gardens with a pathway leading to the front entrance door. A shared driveway provides off-road parking and leads to garaging extending to 28 ft in length, with an oil tank and greenhouse to the rear. The rear gardens are mostly laid to lawn with shrub and flower borders and include two terraces, creating ideal areas for outdoor entertaining and al fresco dining. Gated access (across a footpath) leads to a small meadow/extra garden, affording incredible views across the wonderful wildlife area and open countryside.

Location

The house enjoys a delightful setting towards the end of a quiet close, affording stunning views to the rear across open countryside, a beautiful wildlife area, and Lackford Lakes. Lackford is a pretty village situated approximately 7.2 miles from the historic market town of Bury St Edmunds and the excellent range of facilities this beautiful market town has to offer. The village also provides excellent access to Newmarket and Cambridge.
