Guide Price £365,000

Beautifully presented Victorian cottage enjoying a quiet and peaceful setting in desirable village location close to Bury.

This delightful home is understood to have been built in the 19th century of traditional brick and flint construction beneath a slate roof. In more recent years the cottage has been the subject of considerable improvement and updating, resulting in a charming home of considerable personality, providing a deceptive level of accommodation, displaying many features including a spacious kitchen/dining room, sitting room with contemporary style woodburner and stylish aluminium Bi-fold doors opening to the private rear gardens with studio.

Benefitting from gas fired radiator central heating and double glazing, the accommodation currently in brief comprises an entrance hall with door opening to the well equipped kitchen/dining room, creating an ideal space for entertaining and fitted with an excellent range of modern units complemented by built in appliances. An inner hall with newly installed roof lantern creating a particularly light and airy atmosphere has a built in cupboard and leads through to the splendid sitting room with its fireplace with stylish woodburner and newly installed Bi-fold doors creating a wonderful feeling of space and opening up to the private rear gardens. Within this room are two built in cupboards and stairs off the first floor. The bathroom is a particularly clever use of space and includes a bath and separate shower enclosure, completing the ground floor accommodation.

On the first floor is a small landing leading to the two bedrooms, including the spacious, dual aspect principal bedroom with fitted cupboard and further recess creating potential for a small en-suite.

Outside

To the rear is a beautiful, well stocked garden providing the occupants with a good degree of privacy, particularly during the summer months. The gardens are mostly laid to lawn and include a large timber store and a home office/studio. Adjoining the rear of the cottage off the sitting room, is an Indian sandstone terrace, creating an ideal area for outdoor entertaining and al-fresco dining, whilst enjoying the privacy and delightful south westerly aspect.

Location

The cottage enjoys a tucked away setting up a no through lane, close to the heart of the village. Situated only a mile north of Bury St Edmunds, Fornham St Martin is a highly regarded and conveniently positioned village which still retains a thriving public house and the historic 15th Century Church of St Martin from which the village derives its name.
