Location

Donisthorpe is a charming village on the edge of Swadlincote, nestled in the heart of the National Forest. Surrounded by beautiful countryside, woodland and peaceful waterways, it offers an ideal setting for those who enjoy outdoor living while remaining within easy reach of local towns and amenities. One of the area's greatest attractions is nearby Moira Furnace and Country Park, where visitors can explore the historic furnace, stroll along the tranquil Ashby Canal, enjoy narrowboat trips, picnic areas and scenic waterside walks. The canal towpaths provide miles of peaceful walking and cycling through picturesque woodland and open countryside. Moira Furnace Ashby Canal

The village is also home to Donisthorpe Woodland Park, a former colliery transformed into attractive woodland with accessible walking trails, wildlife habitats, picnic areas and links to the Ashby Wouds Heritage Trail. It is a wonderful place for walking, cycling, horse riding and enjoying nature throughout the year. Donisthorpe Woodland Park The wider National Forest offers an extensive network of footpaths and cycle routes, including the popular Heart of the Forest Trail, which connects Donisthorpe, Moira, Hicks Lodge and surrounding villages through ancient woodland, lakes, restored landscapes and rich industrial heritage. Heart of the Forest Trail

Despite its peaceful rural surroundings, Donisthorpe enjoys excellent access to Swadlincote, Ashby-de-la-Zouch, Burton upon Trent and the A42/M42, making it a convenient location for commuters. The village combines the tranquillity of country living with a wealth of outdoor recreation, making it an attractive place to live for walkers, cyclists, families and nature lovers alike.
