ELEGANCE ON A GRAND SCALE!...An exceptional early 19th century residence that has been meticulously restored and reimagined by the current owners to create a truly outstanding family home. The property showcases an impressive blend of heritage charm and refined contemporary living, where original architectural features have been carefully preserved and complemented by high specification modern finishes throughout.

The sense of quality and craftsmanship is immediately apparent upon entering the welcoming reception hall, which provides access to two beautifully proportioned reception rooms positioned to the front elevation. Both rooms enjoy elegant fireplaces and internal shutters, enhancing the period character while offering modern efficiency. A further substantial reception room provides additional versatility for family living or entertaining, while the ground floor also benefits from a cloakroom and access to a full-height cellar.

Undoubtedly the heart of the home is the magnificent breakfast kitchen, thoughtfully designed and finished to an exceptional standard. A comprehensive range of bespoke wall and base cabinetry is paired with luxurious marble work surfaces and splashbacks, alongside a suite of high quality integrated appliances. Completing the ground floor accommodation is a study positioned to the rear, together with a useful lobby area.

The first floor continues to impress, featuring a superb principal bedroom suite complete with and a stylish en suite shower room. Five further well-proportioned double bedrooms provide excellent family accommodation and are served by a beautifully appointed family bathroom

Externally, the property enjoys attractive and generously sized walled gardens to the rear, creating a private and tranquil outdoor setting ideal for entertaining and family life. A double width driveway provides ample off-street parking and leads to two car ports with additional space above.

Offered for sale with NO CHAIN.
